

Find a helping hand with Anthem

24/7 drug and alcohol support

If you or someone in your family is struggling with drug or alcohol use, we can help. Anthem provides caring support and effective resources that can help with recovery.

Taking the first step toward recovery

Call the Behavioral Health Resources number on your health plan ID card and ask to speak with the substance use navigation team. Our knowledgeable, caring representatives are here for support and guidance 24/7.

You can talk with them about your situation and learn about care options near you. If you're ready, they can schedule an evaluation for you or your family member within 24 to 48 hours.* They'll help with arrangements and manage the details so you can focus on your health.

Additional resources and support
